

Send to: kauljl@wisdoj.gov; Brittany.Copper@wisdoj.gov; Laura.McFarlane@wisdoj.gov; ashley.viste@wisdoj.gov; Christopher.Mckinny@wisdoj.gov

Attorney General Kaul and team,

Congratulations on the recent settlement regarding social media impacts on youth mental health! As a Wisconsin parent raising a child in today's digital age, I see firsthand how crucial positive, in-person afterschool and summer programs are for our children's well-being.

(Note: Delete the example ideas below before sending your email!)

- Possible Options for your narrative- use what you like & add more, delete the rest

"As a working parent in [Your City/County], reliable local programs like Wisconsin Youth Company are a lifeline for our family. They keep our kids safe, engaged, and connected to the real world during critical out-of-school hours.

"In our home, it is a constant battle to keep my child off their phone. Joining Wisconsin Youth Company gave them a safe place to put the screen down, build real friendships, and engage in [hands-on activities/sports/STEM/art]."

"I've noticed a huge difference in my child's confidence and mood since they started attending Wisconsin Youth Company. Having caring adult mentors and structured daily activities gives them

As your office considers the future of youth mental health in Wisconsin, I wanted to share our family's story and thank you for taking action to hold social media companies accountable and prioritize the well-being of our state's children.

Sincerely,

Name

City: